2nd day

Breakfast and departure at 08.30 for SAN LEO. The medieval center preserves the Roman buildings, the church, the Cathedral and the Bell Tower, while the residential buildings changed a lot during the Renaissance period. Guided visit to the Fortress of Francesco di Giorgio Martini. The fortress was the protagonist of important war events during the Renaissance period, with the devolution of the duchy of Urbino to the direct rule of the Papal States (1631), the fortress was turned into a prison. From 1791 until his death, there was jailed Giuseppe Balsamo, known as Count Cagliostro, one of the most fascinating and enigmatic adventurers of our history. Just inside of the fortress we will wach the video for the project "Montefeltro Views of Renaissance", from which we learn what tools and techniques it has come after years of study, to find that the landscape background to the paintings of Piero della Francesca correspond to our views.

The visit continues to an apposit area to watch these landscapes that inspired the artist': "S. Jerome and a Donor "and" Battista Sforza." (We recommend comfortable clothing and shoes, the stretch of trail leading to the balcony is in the wood).

Lunch in a restaurant with a menu of local produce along the way.

In the afternoon we will take a walk in SANTARCANGELO ROMAGNA one of the best-preserved cities of Valmarecchia. Visit the historical center of the medieval town whit the famous Arch Ganganelli erected in honor of Pope Clement XIV, full of towers, ramparts, gates, palaces ... to the beautiful Rocca Malatesta. Visit characteristics of tuffaceous caves and mysterious labyrinth of ancient caves dug in the clay, which served various purposes over the centuries: religious, policy, etc. ..

After transfer from the Cellar "Hill of The Poets", in a beautiful green hill. Visit the wine cellar, wineproducing Sangiovese, Albana and olive oil. Tasting of wine and typical products.
